

To whom it may concern,

I am in full support of SB 22, cutting the state sales tax and eliminating the meals tax on prepared food during this time of historic inflation. Measurers need to be taken immediately to reduce the burden of the added cost caused by historic runaway inflation on CT residents. Other measures should be considered as well, imo.

Sincerely,

Bob Davison
Woodbury, CT
203-263-5790-o
DCMS5790@AOL.COM